Michael McKee was visited in prison on 15 May 2002 by A/D/Inspector and D/Constable . He was invited to make a written statement as a witness as to the events and circumstances surrounding his plea of guilty to perverting the course of justice. He declined stating that he wanted to put the matter behind him.

Rodney Smyth and Joy Kitchen through their solicitor Mr  have both stated they no longer wish their statements to be used in evidence and want them destroyed.

Mr Rodney Smyth was interviewed on 11 April 2002 by A/D/Inspector and D/Constable and stated that he had heard his name mentioned in a pub by people he didn't wish to name and didn't want his statement to incriminate people because he was afraid.

Joy Kitchen was interviewed on 15 May 2002 by A/D/Inspector and D/Constable . She stated that she had heard through a friend
