I am known by the above name and live at an address known to police. On the night of Saturday 27th April 1997 my boyfriend Andrew Osborne and I went to the Coach Inn, Banbridge. We went on the 9 pm bus and returned home on the bus leaving Banbridge at about 1 15 am the following morning. This would have got us back into Portadown at about 1 40 am. When we got back to Portadown the bus dropped us off at Z Cabs and Andrew and I walked from there to the Chinese at West Street. We walked up the Thomas Street side of the main street. I recall seeing a police landrover parked close to Woodhouse Street. I also recall looking up Thomas St and Woodhouse Street but did not see anyone in either street. I also recall seeing a fella just outside Dorothy Perkins. He was going in the opposite direction to us but I do not know who he is. I did not see any police on the street and assumed they were in the landrover. The reason I looked up Thomas St and Woodhouse St is that I always do because I would worry if there was anyone about. This is because there quite often is trouble in the area of this junction. After we got our chinese we went to Tracy McAlpine's house, that is Andrew and I. When we got there Pauline Newell and Shelley Liggot were there. Pauline let us in, Tracy was
