

STATEMENT OF DENISE CORNETT

open by a man in late 30's wearing a blue shirt, dark trousers, brown short hair approached Constable Neill's door and was shouting at him. We all alighted from the landrover. I could see different groups fighting and women screaming. I ran back to the landrover to call for assistance and also an ambulance as two people had been injured. At this time a female wearing a white jumper, brown short hair came to me at the Police landrover and was shouting abuse at me and screaming. I then left the landrover and I could see two people lying on the ground. I ran over to a male who was wearing a blue shirt, dark jeans and short dark hair to see if he was breathing. There were two females at his side. I reassured the females that there was an ambulance on its way. One female was wearing a black leather jacket, dark trousers and long streaked hair. The other female had short brown hair. I then immediately went over to the other male. He was unconscious. A female came over to me and she was very distressed. She was wearing a blue jacket and dark trousers and short dark auburn hair. I then went back to the landrover, I observed Constable Neill struggling with a young male at the landrover. I tried to assist Constable Neill but a male early 20's, wearing white top and brown wavy hair, trying to kick the young male who was struggling with Constable Neill. I tried to restrain the male wearing white jumper from kicking. A male wearing a blue shirt pulled this male away towards Alliance & Leicester Building Society. I left the landrover and I was approached by a female wearing a blue jacket, dark trousers and shoulder length hair and she was very distressed and crying. I tried to comfort her. I observed Police arriving to assist us. The ambulance then arrived and the officers put
