

moment, we will not speculate on.

Yes it has to be said that this enquiry into the death of Mr Hamill is only days, hours old and evidence is still coming forward.

But there you are you are beating and you are kicking him and that's the deceased and I would also say the evidence of the first one that I read out to you there, of those three statements, I would say that was a good chance that was  that you were beating. So here you are, you were beating  and you were beating Hamill who's now deceased. Alright he's a Catholic, you might not like him, but he's now dead. You know, is that what it is all about. A dead Catholic today and a prod next wee. No wonder you are sitting looking down.

SOLICITOR You have problems Marc, would you agree.

Don't answer that Mr Hobson.

SOLICITOR No don't answer that, do what your Solicitor tells you.
