

STATEMENT OF STEPHEN JOSEPH THORNBURY

squaring up to each other. I didn't know anyone in the groups. I was 100-150 yards away and I only popped my head out and back in again. I worked on behind the bar when I came back in, I think Beverley came back in again also. I could hear the commotion getting louder and I went down to the toilet windows and looked out. It was a short time after I had looked out through the doors, I can't say how long it would have been. When I looked out the toilet window I think all the staff were there, when I first looked out I saw two boys lying on the street, one was lying in front of Eastwoods clothes shop, the other was lying at the end of Thomas Street nearer to the Bakery. I seen the police in the middle of the road. There was a landrover on the Woodhouse Street side and there were people behind the rover on the Woodhouse Street side. There was only about two policemen there, one may have been a woman, they were trying to keep the two groups apart. The other group were on the upper side of Thomas Street, that is towards St Mark's Church. There was a woman with the fella who was lying in front of Eastwoods. She was kneeling down beside him. There was lots of shouting going on between the groups. I looked out for about 5 minutes and then I went back into the bar. We were planning to go home but we didn't want to leave until everything was quietened down. I could shouting going on and I went down again and looked out the toilet still hear window. I think Julie was with me at the time. I saw an ambulance on the street and the fella that was nearer to Eastwoods being put into the back of it. I was paying more attention to the ambulance and I don't know what was going on then. I went back into the bar again about a minute or so later and it was shortly after this
