I am a Constable of the Royal Ulster Constabulary at present attached to J2 MSU at Mahon Road Portadown. On Saturday the 10th May 1997 at 7 00 am I was briefed by D/Inspector Irwin at Portadown RUC regarding the murder of Robert Hamill at Portadown on the 27 April 1997. On information received at the briefing a search was carried out of

[REDACTED], the home of Allister Hanvey DOB [REDACTED]
At 0730 I commenced a search of bedroom 1 accompanied by Constable Andrews. I subsequently seized a pair of dark blue jeans which I bagged and labelled MJP1, a pair of white and black trainers which were marked MJP2 and a black padded jacket MJP3. Mr Hanvey identified these items as his own. At 0740 hrs the search of the bedroom terminated. Mr Hanvey was later arrested by D/Con McAteer and conveyed to Lurgan RUC Station. I had no further dealings with Allister Hanvey. I handed items marked MJP1, MJP2 and MJP3 to D/Con John McDowell in Portadown CID Office at 9 10 am.
