I am the above named and my address is known Police recording this statement. On 6th April 1996 I started going out with Dean Forbes, [REDACTED] I met Dean through friends and the relationship became fairly steady as time progressed. On 27th April 1997, I was at my home and did not go out or see Dean that evening. I may have been out with my friends for a short time but I cannot remember. On Sunday 28th April 1997, I was at home when I heard on the radio that there had been a disturbance of some sort in Portadown. I would have seen Dean the following Friday or Saturday night but I do not recall if we discussed the events of the previous weekend. On Tuesday 6th May 1997, Dean was arrested. I learned he'd been arrested as a result of Dean telephoning me. I went to Dean's house and he told me he'd been arrested for being involved in the disturbance in the town on 27/28 April 1997. I cannot remember exactly what he said, but what I do recall is that he said he'd still been in bed when Police came to arrest him. The Police had taken his clothes and that he and Stacey Bridgett had whistled to each other whilst in the cells. Dean asked me if I would go into school and speak to Jill Ritchie. I was to ask Jill if she'd seen Dean. I was told to tell Jill what
