I asked where his flat was & he stated he couldn't remember. I asked him for the flat number. Again he said he couldn't remember.

I asked [REDACTED] was she going out with him at the time she stated she was but she never had any reason to write to him at the flat & therefore couldn't remember the number.

I then asked [REDACTED] whereabouts was the flat in Thomas Street. He stated he couldn't really remember.

I asked [REDACTED] this & she stated that she couldn't really remember either. I asked how long had he been in it he said about 1 year. I asked what age was he at that time & he said he couldn't remember. I asked what age was he now & he said 31. I asked [REDACTED] where the flat was & she stated she couldn't remember. I asked [REDACTED] was he there on DHSS benefits. He stated
