to describe where it was they said they couldn't remember but it was on the left hand side as you go from the town centre. I asked [REDACTED] was it beyond the bend in Thomas Street. He stated that it was between the British Legion & the church on the left hand side - I asked him did he want to make a statement he declined. At 8.00 pm the telephone rang & [REDACTED] answered & said they had to go. I asked [REDACTED] was there anything else he wanted to say He said there was wasn't J [REDACTED] & I left. Throughout any time in the room with [REDACTED] & [REDACTED] I found them both to be evasive & I got the impression they were telling lies about the whereabouts of the flat in Thomas Street. During our time asking questions about the whereabouts of the flat both [REDACTED] & [REDACTED] went red. Duty
