

(SEARCH RECORD)

The latest issue of Form 29 (Search Record) print number FPB 8/96 takes account of the changes in legislation brought about by the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996. However as the result of a misprint the authority to search a dwelling house under Section 20(2) as set out on page 3 states, "...a member of the Royal Ulster Constabulary not below the rank of Chief Inspector". This should be amended by deleting the word "Chief" to read "Inspector". The amendment should be initialled by the authorising officer.
