

statement, which my daughter typed up for him. They then put it in an envelope and gave that to me. I did not see the contents of the statement and did not discuss the contents with them.

5. I then remember two detectives coming to the house to ask again whether P42 would give a formal statement. One of the detectives was DS H [redacted] They knew it was P42 who had made the note by that stage. I am also aware that P42 later went into the police station to speak to them but I don't know anything more about that. I do think this was some time in 1999.

6. I had no other involvement in this and cannot add anything further.
