In relation to the attached document I can find no new evidence relating to the murder investigation. However, I feel that the issued raised regarding the anonymous phone calls made to [REDACTED] and a local priest needs to be pursued to ensure a proper and full conclusion. Detective Chief Inspector [REDACTED] has the appropriate area of responsibility to pursue this matter.

In relation to Witness A there was no retraction of evidence until a consultation occurred with the DPP. I have attached a copy of that direction. Police had previously identified the vulnerability of this individual and had made attempts to assist in alleviating these areas of concern. Although the word intimidation is used I would advise that this has to be put in context in what it meant to the actual witness, eg;

- (a) Relative of one of the accused staring at the witness.
- (b) Friends stopped talking to the witness.
- (c) Advised to approach [REDACTED] in order to obtain their advice on how to retract this individual's evidence.
- (d) Living in a Loyalist estate which housed suspected members of the Loyalist Volunteer Force.

In relation to the above points no specific investigations were pursued.

Having had the opportunity to address the issues raised it is now appropriate that this document is submitted through Detective Chief Inspector [REDACTED] to the Holmes system.
