Dear [REDACTED],

ROBERT HAMILL, DECEASED

For your information I am enclosing copies of two letters.

The first is from the Royal Ulster Constabulary indicating that I would be consulted in relation to any request for pre-inquest disclosure.

The second is from [REDACTED] Solicitors who act for the next of kin. They take issue with the accuracy of my letter although I believe that it was accurate.

I should be grateful for your advice as to how to respond.

Your sincerely,
JL
