

Called with both at above address on 25/11/97 between 7 25 pm to 7 35 pm. Confirmed their t/n was [REDACTED] but had been changed due to threatening phone calls following charging of their son Allister. Asked Kenneth Hanvey about receiving phone call on 27th April 1997 in morning time. He related he recalled receiving phone call from a Michael McKee. It was a Sunday morning and he got out of bed. Michael asked if Tracey Clarke was with Allister. As a result he went and checked bedroom but Allister wasn't home and assumed staying in his brother's house. He returned and told Michael Tracey wasn't there. That's all that was said. He related Tracey and Allister had fallen out about 3 weeks at that time however, it was an on/off relationship. He didn't take any further notice of the call. Can't actually recall phone call from Eleanor Atkinson however, can recall discussing Tae Kwon Do gloves/helmet/other equipment which as a result they left for Eleanor at Tae Kwon Do Club. Can't recall who spoke to Eleanor, but Elizabeth thought it was herself. They hadn't been using the items anymore and Eleanor requested them which they gave. Kenneth Hanvey related that he had very little dealings with Robert Atkinson following the blocking of the 'Tunnel' by police and in which the word was Robert Atkinson identified a number of the people which resulted in them going to court. He stated that if he met Robert Atkinson up the street now he probably wouldn't even talk to him. He would talk to his wife Eleanor. He related he used to play football with Robert Atkinson at Portadown III's however, he wouldn't now refer to him as any type of friend. Asked if they would make witness statements reference the telephone calls. Both related that their son had spent 5 1/2 mths in prisoner for an unfair justice system and that on no account would they be putting 'pen to paper'.
