record of the fight they stated Kenneth + wife had got out of bed around 9 am 27/4/97 he went and fed cattle and wife made breakfast. Kenneth then went to his brother Thomas house in [redacted] and spoke to Allister who informed him of the fight. Mr Henney further relates how Allister had told him that he had helped police to keep the crowd back and [redacted] suggested that this police man would be giving evidence on behalf of Allister. Mr Henney refused to identify this policeman. Mr Henney stated that the story in the town was that the police were not being truthful and had initiated the sequence of events. Mc Connors on Mr Henney left the house then both declined to make further statements return to Portadown General office duties terminated 1700
