On Saturday 26th April 1997 I got the bus over to the Coach Disco in Banbridge at about 9 pm. I was with my girlfriend Judith Holland from [REDACTED]. We got the bus back to Portadown from Banbridge leaving there at around 1 15 am on Sunday 27th April 1997.

Getting into Portadown between half one and a quarter to two. I don't remember anyone else on the bus. I was quite drunk. Judith and I got off the bus at Z Cabs and walked straight up the town to the Chinese in West Street. I remember seeing a Police landrover at the Alliance and Leicester Building Society but the town itself was very quiet. At the Chinese Judith said about going round to a friend of hers in [REDACTED]. I think this girl's called Tracey Newell. When we got there there wasn't many there just a few wee girls. We stayed about half an hour before leaving. I slept there for a time then we left. I can't say who was there at all. I didn't hear any talk about a fight in the town.
