I am a Detective Sergeant of the Royal Ulster Constabulary presently attached to the Criminal Investigation Department, South Region. On

Tuesday 20th May 1997, I spoke with [REDACTED], [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was the owner of a taxi company known as

Call-A-Cab, based at the aforementioned address and operating in the Portadown area. I received from [REDACTED] a copy of his taxi log sheets for 27th April 1997, which contained details of fares carried by the firm. I retained these items in my possession and submitted them into the Holmes system on 21st May 2000. I later supplied a copy of these log sheets to Mrs McKee, [REDACTED], to allow the firm to keep their records complete. These were supplied to Mrs McKee on 21st May 1997.
