Further to the statement which I made to police on 11th May 1997 I would like to add the following. There were other people in my company that night who I did not mention. These people are Lisa Hobson, Joanne Bradley and Wayne Lunt. Michelle and I met Wayne Lunt first. We met him at the entrance to Brownstown Pk at about 10 pm and he joined our company, this was not pre-arranged. About 10 minutes later we were walking in Connaught Park and we met Lisa and Joanne, they joined our company too. After awhile we went back to Michelle's house, that is all five of us. There I remember Wayne using Michelle's telephone to order a bottle of wine. We stayed in Michelle's house talking and listening to music until about quarter to one on the morning of Sunday 27 April 1997. At that time all five of us left Michelle's house and walked through Connaught Park past Donard Walk, Ranfurly Rd to Jervis St where we left Joanne at the Edgarstown Bridge. She had to go home to look after her baby. Michelle, Lisa, Wayne and I then went along West Street to the direction of the centre of Portadown. Wayne was drunk at that stage. Wayne disappeared at around Stewarts in West Street and I did not see him again. At Stewarts Lisa saw the car of a friend of mine, he is Glen Mercer. She pulled me into Mandeville Street so he wouldn't see me because she knew I probably would have gone with Glen. We just walked round Mandeville Street, I was talking to Michelle. I don't know where Lisa went to, I did not see her again that night. Soon afterwards Glen came up to us and after that everything that is in my first statement is true. The reason I did not mention these other people in my first statement is that my parents do not allow me in the company of some of these people.
