I am a Full-Time Reserve Constable of the Royal Ulster Constabulary at present attached to Portadown RUC Station, Edward Street, Co Armagh. On Sunday 27 April 1997 I was in uniform and accompanied by Constables Neill, Cornett and Atkinson in a landrover on public order duties in Portadown town centre. At approximately 0143 hours we were stopped at the junction of Woodhouse St, Market St with the front of the landrover pointing in the direction of the Halifax Building Society. At this time we were talking to two male youths, one of whom I know as 'Stacey'. A short time later a man who was approximately 35 - 40 years old and wearing a navy shirt and dark coloured trousers informed R/Constable Cornett that his mates were coming from St Pat's Hall towards the town centre. At this time I noted a crowd of approx 25 persons walking from the direction of Wellworths shop in the direction of Church Street. I heard shouting coming from the direction of Thomas Street and informed Constable Neill. A male person then opened Constable Neill's door and started pulling at his arm and shouting at him. We then got out of the landrover and I noted that there was a crowd of approximately 50 youths and men, there were several fights taking place and several females were screaming and shouting. The male who was wearing the navy shirt and dark trousers came over to me and shouted, "What the fuck are you going to do." I tried to get this male into Woodhouse Street for his own safety and to stop further confrontation with the other males. At this time another male who was wearing a white sweatshirt type top came running from the direction of Woodhouse St. I physically stopped this male and moved him back towards Woodhouse St as I knew he came from the Nationalist part of town. I observed two males lying in the middle of the road adjacent to Thomas St. There was a crowd at that side of the street. I made my way across the street to Thomas St and assisted other Police in moving the crowd back. I observed one of the males in the crowd, this male had very short black hair, black moustache and a goatie type beard, he was approx 5'9" tall and was of stocky build. He had a black leather jacket and was wearing blue jeans. This male was been very aggressive and was taunting the Nationalists and had to be physically moved back several times. The ambulance arrived and the Paramedics attended the two injured males. The males were put into the ambulance and taken to hospital. Sergeant P89 and Inspector McCrum gave orders for the crowd to be moved into West Street. The crowd was eventually moved to out of the town centre into Little West Street. Police then formed a cordon at the West Street barrier and eventually the crowd dispersed. Our call sign was stood down at approximately 3 30 am.
