

ROBERT HAMILL, DECEASED

1st June 2000

I telephoned D/Inspector Michael Irwin at Portadown CID. I advised that I had made a definite decision not to hold an inquest and I asked him to inform witnesses A and B of my decision. I explained that the reason was my concerns for their safety and also the fact that it would be misleading to hold an inquest excluding their evidence.