

STATEMENT OF GORDON COOKE

unconscious and both had blood around their faces. Other Police also arrived at the scene around this time. I approached the crowd along with other Police and started to move them back towards West Street. I recognised the following persons at the front of the crowd, Stacey Bridget from [REDACTED] Portadown. His nose was bleeding. [REDACTED] from [REDACTED] He was wearing a multi coloured checked shirt. Rory Robinson of [REDACTED] Portadown, was wearing a yellow coloured shirt with a fine check through it and beige coloured trousers. [REDACTED] of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Portadown, was wearing a black leather jacket and blue denim trousers. On several occasions while we were holding this crowd back and trying to move them towards West Street, I spoke to Robinson and [REDACTED] and asked them to move up the street. Both refused to move and each of them tried to push past myself and other Police on several occasions. I also recognised the following persons among the crowd, Timothy Jameson and P51 [REDACTED] was wearing a navy jacket and blue denims. I also saw a male person in the crowd wearing a grey Umbro sweatshirt, fawn trousers and black and white trainers, a female with long dark curly hair, wearing a black jacket and black trousers and a girl, wearing a grey Adidas top and purple denims. I later spoke to these persons in Jervis Street, Portadown, at 5 50 am and identified them as Kenneth Milligan, DOB [REDACTED] of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Lisa Hobson, DOB [REDACTED] of [REDACTED] and Noelle Moore, DOB [REDACTED] of [REDACTED] respectively. An ambulance subsequently arrived and attended to the injured persons while we continued to hold and push the crowd back. After about 30
