Spoke to P50 INFORMATION proprietor of Paracord at Portdown & Belfast on 18-12-00. I have had ongoing contact with MR Lyon over a period of weeks regarding the coat purchased by Tracey Clarke P50 had checked for old records but cannot locate anything for 1996 Christmas period. He states he probably threw them out. He can recall a girl called Tracey who worked in Going Places buying a coat for her boyfriend and was called Christy. He does recall that shortly after they got the coat it was damaged and they called back at the shop and had it repaired by covering it over with perhaps patches however he cannot be sure. When asked about a coat costing £175.00 he cannot definitely say that they got a coat at that price but believes the only one they sold at that time was a small Abbie coat at that amount of money. This was a Puffa coat and
