

assaulting you and at no time you retaliated with anybody, you never hit anybody.

ALLEN

Whenever I went up Thomas Street the boy took a swing at me, all I could do was put my hands up. I was falling back that was it. Well he was trying to knock my head off you know and just then three or four boys came running in and knocked him to the ground and that was it and he got up and run away now you know. I didn't want anything to do with it.

What was he wearing.

ALLEN

I haven't a clue, all I know he was like a tall boy, sort of skinny with black hair, that's all I know.

So you got off the bus.

ALLEN

Yes.

And you were with Rory and David.

ALLEN

Well they were on up in front of me.
