

I found at the scene at Market St, Portadown, between the junctions of Thomas St and Woodhouse St, a number of small areas of bloodstaining, some pieces of broken timber, some broken green bottle glass (separate areas on each side of the street, an empty beer tin (at the junction of Woodhouse St and in a flower bed on a traffic island on the Church St side of the junction a 1/2 full bottle of buckfast wine and an empty bottle of buckfast wine. I took from the scene the following items, marked on rough maps as to the location from which they were taken -

MAA1 - Blood sample. Market St on Thomas St side.

MAA2 - Blood sample. Market St on Thomas St side.

MAA3 - Blood sample, footpath Woodhouse St side.

MAA4 - Blood sample, footpath Woodhouse St side.

MAA6 - Broken pieces of wood.

MAA7 - Broken piece of wood.

Item MAA6 was taken from outside the door of the Alliance and Leicester at the Woodhouse St junction and MAA7 from a parking layby on Market St a short distance away.

MAA8 - Broken bottle glass, Thomas St side of street.

MAA9 - Broken bottle glass, Woodhouse St side of street.

MAA10 - Beer tin

This was taken from the road on Market St close to Woodhouse St junction.

MAA11 - 1/2 full wine bottle.

MAA12 - Empty wine bottle.