landrover. I think there were a few members of the public standing around the landrover. I then heard shouting, I heard, "Orange Bastards this is our town", and "Up the RA". I looked down the street and I could see a scuffle at the junction with Woodhouse Street and Thomas Street. There were about 10 to 12 people in the scuffle but they weren't all fighting. I didn't see any punches being thrown and I didn't see anybody lying on the street. I didn't recognise anybody in the scuffle. I was only sitting on the summer seat for about five minutes before the scuffle started. I got up and started to run back up the street, P44, Kyle and Simon ran with me. I didn't see Lisa Hobson or Wayne Lunt after we started to run up the street. We got to Intersport in West Street and we met Simon's mum and her friend Wendy. We then walked on up home with them. The reason I ran when I saw this scuffle start was because I knew I shouldn't be there at that time. That night I was wearing blue jeans, denim jacket, waist length, blue colour, I was wearing a navy Adidas sweat shirt and Nike air shoes.
