On Saturday night 26th April 1997 me and P44, Kyle Woods and P51 were listening to music in the shed at the back of our house. I came into the house before 1 am on Sunday morning, 27th April 1997 and asked my mum if I could go to the Cam Hing Chinese in West Street to get something to eat. She said okay so all four of us headed off. We dossed about and walked slowly. We didn't go in to the Chinese but walked on towards the town. I think P51 got separated from us at about the foot bridge in West Street. He stopped to talk to somebody there. P44, Kyle, and I walked along West Street turned into Mandeville Street then got onto Church Street. Then walked down to the Church. I could see a crowd of people in the town walking up towards the Church. They were somewhere near the Alliance and Leicester Branch where a police landrover was. I could see people near the landrover and the landrover doors were open. We knew we shouldn't have been there so we walked into West Street heading back in the direction of home. At about Intersport I met my mum who'd come into town to look for us. I looked back and saw P51 coming up towards us from the Church direction. He'd been at about the summer seats and when he heard my mum he came on too. We all walked up home.
