On Saturday night 26th April 1997 at about 9 pm I got the bus over to the Coach Disco in Banbridge along with my mate Paul Currie. We'd a fair amount to drink through that day and night. We got the bus back from the Coach to Portadown at about 1 15 am on Sunday morning getting into Portadown at about twenty to or a quarter to two. We got off the bus at Z Cabs and Paul and I walked up the town towards home. I recall seeing a Police landrover at the Alliance and Leicester, just at the corner of Woodhouse Street. The town was very quiet. There wasn't a sinner on it that I seen. We'd been walking up, more or less behind Tracy and Pauline Newell and Kelly Lavery and we caught up and joined them to walk home from about Mandeville Street. I didn't see any fight at all. As I've said already the town was very quiet.
