

on the road close to the junction of Thomas Street.
There was females assisting them.
The crowd was mostly made up of young men and a few women, one of the women I know to be Noel Moore from [REDACTED]. She was with another female with long black hair. There was about 50 in the crowd. This crowd kept shout abuse at an officer partime who was behind me.
The crowd tried to pass police who were holding them back.
I instructed R/Const Warnock to return to P/down Police Station for a riot gun. Ambulances arrived and removed the injured men. Inspector McCrum arrived and instructed us to move the loyalist crowd toward West Street. This was done and the area became quiet.

5 30 AM I instructed the towns street cleaner to avoid the junctions
