business ran well through the years and I was involved in helping Michael to keep it running. At around the beginning of 1999, the business began to fall apart because Michael was beginning to absent himself. On 14 April 1999, Michael separated from me and he went to [REDACTED] in Southern Ireland with another woman Miss [REDACTED]. Although I didn't know it at the time, they had been having a relationship since Christmas of 1998. I was left to wind up the affairs of the business and after I had done that, I left Northern Ireland in May 1999 and returned to live in Wrexham. Divorce proceedings are currently pending and this is being handled by my Solicitor. The divorce is being made on the grounds of his adultery. I understand that Mr [REDACTED] Solicitor from Lurgan is currently representing him. I first met Robert and Eleanor Atkinson quite a few number of years ago when their daughter [REDACTED] attended a class which was run by Michael at the Killycomaine Community Centre in Portadown. I think that [REDACTED] was about [REDACTED] yrs old at the time. Her parents would have delivered and collected her. I remember that Robert Atkinson once asked Michael was he the son of [REDACTED] McKee who Robert knew at the Mahon Road Army Camp. Michael's father was a Captain in the UDR many years before that but it was through this that Robert Atkinson and Michael became friends. [REDACTED] McKee died, I believe, in 1997. As their friendship developed over time, Robert and Eleanor Atkinson began attending weekend tournaments and this is how I became friendly with them. I remember that Michael actually got the Unit in Brownstown Business Centre through Robert Atkinson who was driving for Bobby Jameson who owned the complex. Jameson rented out units at the Business Centre and Robert Atkinson actually introduced Michael to Bobby Jameson. On occasions we would meet up socially and
