

STATEMENT OF JAMES MURRAY

Atkinson because Robert Atkinson daughter [REDACTED] went to Michaels Tae Kwon Do Club at [REDACTED]. I remember Andrea and Michael telling us that one Drumcree they met Robert Atkinson at Drumcree they had been there to protest and drink and it was very wet. They said they met Robert Atkinson he was on duty and he had given them towels to dry themselves. For about 6 years prior to 1999 I was at home as a carer looking after my wife [REDACTED] who has a neurology disease and her father who was also ill. I remember sometime after the Hamill incident a police landrover would call at Michaels at [REDACTED] and Robert Atkinson would call at Michaels door. This happened sometimes twice a week and Robert Atkinson would always go to the front door. He didn't always get Michael or Andrea in and he just left. I remember on the night Tracey went to the Police Station to make her statement I was in bed we got a phone call to our house I think [REDACTED] told me that Andrea called to say she was with Tracey and would look after her. I think John McAteer took this statement. I remember Andrea later saying that she came from the gym to the chinese and took Tracey to the Station. I remember I got up that night and when Tracey came home she was crying and [REDACTED] was comforting her. I also remember although I don't know exactly when Tracey said Alistair had got rid of the clothes and burnt them. Tracey had bought him a silver jacket from Paranoid for that Christmas thats 1996 and I never saw it after that Hamill incident. The jacket was silver, like anorak material without the lining in it. I remember the jacket had an orange stripe on the sleeves the jacket only came to his waist and it looked too small for him. I don't remember if Tracey said the jacket was burned but I do
