26	16/02/01	On 16/02/01, at Gough Barracks, I met with DCS CS and DCIK There has been a review of evidence in relation to the criminal misconduct of Reserve Constable Atkinson. A briefing paper has been prepared. DCS CS believes that there is sufficient evidence to charge Reserve Constable Atkinson with attempting to pervert the course of public justice. Whilst certain elements of the available evidence (when taken in isolation) is circumstantial, it is contended by DCS CS that significant weight to the prosecution would be achieved if either or both Andrea McKee and Tracey Clarke were to give evidence on behalf of the Crown. These are matters, which DCS CS proposes to discuss at length with the DPP. DCS CS expressed concern about the feasibility of
