| | | deploying covert recording equipment in the home of Reserve Constable Atkinson; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Intelligence sources indicate that Reserve Constable Atkinson believes he is the subject of 24 hour surveillance, including the interception of his telephone. • He spends most of each day within the family home. Reserve Constable Atkinson is currently placed sick with an injury on duty, he believes that he is being watched to establish whether he is undertaking any other employment. • Reserve Constable Atkinson is believed to be proficient when dealing with electronics and computers. This may indicate some knowledge of technical surveillance capability. • It is believed that when his home is searched, Reserve Constable Atkinson will take whatever measures he can to monitor exactly what is going on and who is present in his home at the time. • The presence of Reserve Constable Atkinson's two teenage children may also present a problem with installation of technical equipment. It remains DCS CS's strategy to arrest Alistair Hanvey, his parents, Eleanor Atkinson and Michael McKee. Technical deployment will be attempted within all the premises searched. The equipment to be used is the latest available and there will be a period of familiarisation required. | | |
