

just occurred in A&E. However, I do not think the pathologist found any evidence of hypoxic brain injury. If it was definitely established that there was no hypoxic brain injury, then whatever the passers-by did to Mr Hamill would not have prevented his death.

31. I do not recall the exact circumstances of how I came to be contacted by the police with regards to my statements being taken or my giving evidence at the R v. Hobson trial.

SIGNED:
.....

BOON LOW

DATED: .....