

reported she left the police station. I later made a notebook entry [page 22164 - 22168] of my dealings with Andrea McKee that day.

28. During my involvement with Andrea McKee on 10 April 2001 she was not offered any inducements either before or after interview to ensure that she told the truth or to ensure that she gave evidence against others in the future.
29. I returned to Wrexham on 20 September 2001 and served prosecution papers on Andrea McKee.
30. I was aware from being involved in the murder investigation of Robert Hamill on 12 May 1997 that there was a public complaint made against the four officers in the Land Rover crew at the scene of the fighting on 27 April 1997. I was not involved in the investigation into that complaint.
